Generation Dead Book 3: Passing Strange by Daniel Waters ...

Perhaps my review title is something of a blanket statement, but honestly, this book (Passing Strange) and the two previous Generation Dead books are well done. As an English teacher, I'm in a constant battle of really wanting students to read, but not wanting them to read just any YA lit (rationale: the prose, structure, and content of many new YA books can be very weak).

Generation Dead Book 3: Passing Strange by Daniel Waters

This third installment of the "Generation Dead" novels is a good continuation of the series. Readers would defiantly want to start with GENERATION DEAD and KISS OF LIFE as other reviewers have stated. PASSING STRANGE starts off where KISS OF LIFE ended, but from Karen's point of view.
